

Laser operators

Growing stainless steel bolted tank manufacturer is seeking experienced full time Laser Operators and CNC operators and manual machine operators to work in our facility. Will train for our specific machine, however, candidate must have experience with programming and operation of laser and other machines. Ideal applicants to be computer literate and understand common cut, nesting, and programming of machine operations. First shift, week days. Salary and benefits commensurate with education and experience. Applicants can either email resumes and minimum of 3 professional and 3 personal references to info@aetanks.com or mail to American Engineered Tanks, Po Box 409, Menomonie, WI 54751